

Illinois Poison Center
POISON
HELP
1•800•222•1222

In Illinois, there are more people hospitalized for poisonings than for injuries from firearms and motor vehicle collisions combined.

Medical experts available to help

24 hours a day 7 days a week 365 days a year

Think you might have been exposed to something that could be potentially harmful (medication, food, bite, sting, chemical, cleaner, etc.)?

DON'T Guess ... Be Sure. Call Us 1-800-222-1222

Free, Confidential Call

For a FREE Complimentary Packet (sticker, magnet, first aid tips), go to:
https://illinoispoisoncenter.org/Request_a_Complimentary_Packet

[1] Center for Disease Control Website, Prevent Unintentional Poisonings. Source: National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, Division of Unintentional Injury Prevention
[1] Making Illinois Safer: A Strategic Plan for Injury Prevention, 2011-20115, pp. 6 ; Source: Illinois Department of Public Health in collaboration with Illinois Injury Prevention Coalition.
Illinois Health and Hospital Association  The IPC is a service of the Illinois Health and Hospital Association

Illinois Poison Center
POISON
HELP
1•800•222•1222

En Illinois, hay más personas hospitalizadas por envenenamiento que por lesiones de armas de fuego y accidentes automovilísticos.

Expertos médicos están disponibles para ayudar

24 horas del día 7 días a la semana 365 días al año

Crees haber estado expuesto a algo potencialmente dañino (medicamentos, alimentos, mordeduras, picaduras, químicos, productos de limpieza, etc)?

No adivínes.... Asegúrate. Llamanos 1-800-222-1222

Es gratis y su llamada es confidencial

Para un paquete gratis (calcomanía, imán, tips de primeros auxilios), vaya a:
https://illinoispoisoncenter.org/Request_a_Complimentary_Packet

[1] Center for Disease Control Website, Prevent Unintentional Poisonings. Source: National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, Division of Unintentional Injury Prevention
[1] Making Illinois Safer: A Strategic Plan for Injury Prevention, 2011-20115, pp. 6 ; Source: Illinois Department of Public Health in collaboration with Illinois Injury Prevention Coalition.

Illinois Health and Hospital Association  The IPC is a service of the Illinois Health and Hospital Association